

Criminology

Where can a qualification in Criminology lead?

This course is a good stepping stone to University to study law or one of the social sciences.

The skills that students will learn in Criminology will be useful in a number of careers.

- Working for the Government
- Prison officer
- Probation officer
- Youth work
- Civil service
- Community development worker
- Crime scene investigator
- Detective
- Police officer
- Social worker
- Youth worker
- Adult guidance worker
- Border Force officer
- Charity officer
- Counsellor
- Housing manager/officer
- Paralegal
- Political risk analyst
- Social researcher
- Solicitor

HOW IS THE COURSE ASSESSED?

- COURSEWORK
- EXAM

DELIVERED OVER 2 YEARS
4 UNITS

YEAR 12

UNIT 1

(Changing awareness of Crime)

- Knowing about the wide range of different crimes
- The reasons people have for not reporting such crimes

UNIT 2 – EXAM BASED (90 MINS)

(Criminological Theories)

- How do we decide what behaviour is criminal?
- What is the difference between criminal behaviour and deviance?
- How do we explain why people commit crime?
- What makes someone a serial killer, or abusive to their own families?

YEAR 13

UNIT 3

(Crime scene to Courtroom)

- What are the roles of personnel involved when a crime is detected?
- What investigative techniques are available to investigators to help to identify the culprit?

UNIT 4 - EXAM BASED (90 MINS)

(Crime & Punishment)

- Why do most of us tend to obey the law even when to do so is against our own interests?
- What social institutions have we developed to ensure that people do obey laws?
- What happens to those who violate our legal system?
- Why do we punish people? How do we punish people?

Discussions and debates on key legal issues

Mock trials and real cases

Forensic Science Workshops in/out of College

Trips to the courts

Applying knowledge to scenarios

As well as being a fascinating subject...

It is the most popular subject in sixth form

Taught by subject
specialists

Supportive Teachers

Excellent results
100% Pass
rate

Bobby (2020-2022)

Subjects Studied: Criminology, Psychology, Maths

Current Position: University of Liverpool, Criminology BA (Hons)

Feedback:

"Immanuel College is a great place to study for a wide range of students.

The support offered at Immanuel College is second to none with pastoral support from post 16 staff and passionate teachers available to help where it is needed.

Resources like textbooks, laptops, and printers are freely available to students along with a range of study environments to suit anyone's study style.

Studying at Immanuel College will provide you with the opportunity to move onto a successful career either directly or through means of further education at top universities or high-level apprenticeships."

Why study Criminology at Immanuel?

- Amazing enrichment opportunities
- Great links with work and further study opportunities
- One of the highest achieving courses for A/A*
- Good pass results
- Interesting subject
- Offers links to a wide choice of careers
- Many of our students go on to study Criminology both at local Universities and places like Northumbria and Nottingham

Any questions?