

Please answer the question below using A4 lined paper. You should then submit this to your English teacher for marking and feedback.

Write a story set in a forest.

Creative writing plan

Find more worksheets and resources for English, maths and science at www.edplace.com

Opening:

The sun sliced between the branches of the trees.

(Now describe what you can see, hear and smell)

Introduce a character. Remember, only include two characters as a maximum.

Think of a problem. Keep it simple. Could a character become lost? Could they lose something precious like a watch or a ring?

Try to build drama and suspense. Use short sentences.

Finish – bring your story to an end. Could you find the watch?