

	Half term 1	Half term 2	Half term 3	Half term 4	Half term 5	Half term 6
Key focus	How can inspirational individuals from history inspire our own stories?	How much really changed when the Normans took over England?	How far was John I a 'bad' king?	How does Medieval Mali challenge our ideas?	Should we condemn or celebrate the Tudor dynasty?	How far did the world turn 'upside down' during the 17 th century?
Key knowledge and skills	Identity Citizenship Inspiration	Identity Fact or Opinion Communication	Fact or Opinion Investigate Independence	Fact or Opinion Communication Investigate	Identity Fact or Opinion Citizenship Inspiration	Identity Communication Independence
Key words/ vocabulary	Perseverance Character Hope	Monarch Heir Norman Conquest	Baron Magna Carta Excommunicate	Mansa Griot Timbuktu	Catholic Protestant Religious Settlement	Civil War Execution Republic
Assessment method	Assessment Point 1.1 Variety of tasks including written assessment	Assessment Point 1.2 Multiple Choice	Assessment Point 1.3 Variety of tasks including written assessment	Assessment Point 2.1 Variety of tasks including written assessment	Assessment Point 2.2 Variety of tasks including written assessment	Assessment Point 2.3 Multiple Choice
Wider links	Complements the College's ethos of 'All God's Children'	The study of the Anglo-Saxon epic, Beowulf, in English Alternative sources such as the Bayeux Tapestry, to Design and Technology	Philosophy, Religion and Ethics links to issues with Church and State	The study of griots linking to study of West African music in Music Links to Philosophy, Religion and Ethics with the Islamic influence in Mali	Themes of religious tolerance and intolerance linking to Philosophy, Ethics and Religion Study of Shakespeare as propaganda, linking to English
Enrichment opportunities	Visit Shibden Hall in Halifax, the home of Anne Lister	Study the illustrated Domesday Book in the College's library Build a model motte and bailey castle		Act out the epic of Sundiata, and compare the story to themes within Disney's 'The Lion King'	Visit Hardwick Hall in Derbyshire, Speke Hall in Liverpool, Fountains Abbey in North Yorkshire	Visit the site of the Battle of Marston Moor near Harrogate in North Yorkshire Research the impact of the English Civil War on Yorkshire and the story of Sir Thomas Fairfax
Careers links	Archivist		Digital Content Manager		High Court Judge	