

	Half term 1	Half term 2	Half term 3	Half term 4	Half term 5	Half term 6
Key focus	Germany: 1890-1945 Democracy and Dictatorship – Germany and the Depression, 1929-34 The Cold War – The origins of the Cold War (1940's)	Germany: 1890-1945 Democracy and Dictatorship – The experiences of Germans under the Nazis, 1933-45 The Cold War – The development and transformation of the Cold War (1950's and 1960's)	The Cold War – The development and transformation of the Cold War (1950's and 1960's)	GCSE revision and exam preparation	GCSE revision and exam preparation
Key knowledge and skills	Identify Citizenship Inspiration	Fact and Opinion Citizenship Independence	Investigate Fact and Opinion Citizenship
Key words/ vocabulary	Great Depression Propaganda Reichstag Chancellor / Fuhrer Grand Alliance Ideology Soviet bloc Blockade / Airlift	Self-sufficiency Persecution Hitler Youth Gestapo Domino theory Proxy war Space race / arms race	Embargo Refugees De-escalation Détente
Assessment method		Mock Exam 1 covering taught content so far		Mock Exam 2 covering taught content so far	GCSE Papers 1 and 2 (TBC)	GCSE Papers 1 and 2 (TBC)
Wider links	Social impact of economic depression and its influence on democracy.  Political awareness of the reasons for contrasting / differing ideologies.	Study of the impact of group dynamics in persecuting minority groups.  Examination of the 'red fear' through contemporary news / cinema of the time.	Political diplomacy and the need for communication to avoid conflict.
Enrichment opportunities		Visit the Yorkshire Air Museum to examine the developing Cold War technology of the period.	Visit York's Cold War bunker to gain an understanding of the 'nuclear threat' facing people of the period.	Visit the Thackray Museum of Medicine for some useful 'Health and the People' revision opportunities.

Careers links			Heritage Manager Archaeologist Marketing Executive			Academic researcher Archivist Solicitor
---------------	--	--	--	--	--	---