

	Half term 1	Half term 2	Half term 3	Half term 4	Half term 5	Half term 6
Key focus	Britain: Health and the people – Disease and Infection Elizabethan England – Elizabeth’s court and Parliament	Britain: Health and the people - Disease and Infection / Surgery and anatomy Elizabethan England – troubles at home and abroad	Britain: Health and the people – Surgery and anatomy Elizabethan England – Life in Elizabethan times	Britain: Health and the people – Public Health Elizabethan England – Life in Elizabethan times	Britain: Health and the people – Public Health Elizabethan England – Historical environment	Germany: 1890-1945 Democracy and Dictatorship – Germany and the growth of democracy, 1890-1923
Key knowledge and skills	Identity Investigate Communication	Identity Investigate Communication	Identity Investigate Communication	Identity Investigate Communication	Identify Citizenship Inspiration	Identify Citizenship Inspiration
Key words/ vocabulary	Ancients Christianity Islam Tudors Privy Council Suitor	Bacteriology Renaissance Dissection Catholicism Heir Armada	Anaesthetics Aseptic surgery Plastic surgery Great Chain of Being Golden Age Vagabonds	Monasteries Sewerage Cholera Circumnavigation colonise	Vested interests National Health Service	Autocracy Republic ‘diktat’ Treaty of Versailles Constitution extremism
Assessment method		Assessment Point 1 – written assessment covering taught content so far	Assessment Point 2 – written assessment covering taught content so far			Assessment Point 3 – Mock exam of 2 hours in length covering taught content so far
Wider links	Focus placed on faith in God and the impact of healing / strength through religion.  The challenges faced by a single, independent woman in the 16 th century.	Physiological studies in science around the anatomy of the human body.  Themes of religious tolerance and intolerance linking to Philosophy, Ethics and Religion	Comparison of pharmaceutical treatments alongside alternative therapies.  Study of the impact of Shakespeare on the theatre and the Golden Age in general.	Political arguments in regard to the role of the NHS in the 21 st century.  Moral implications of the role of empire in the 16 th century world as well as the impact of slavery as an economic means.	Ethical links to the role of the state in providing social support.	Political examination of autocracy versus democratic notions of power.  Morality issues regarding blame for First World War being placed solely on Germany and how right this was.
Enrichment opportunities	Visit Fountains Abbey, Ripon for an insight into medieval monastic healthcare.		Visit the Thackray Museum of Medicine, Leeds to uncover the ‘revolution’ in surgical progress.			Visit Oakwell Hall in Kirklees, Hardwick Hall in Derbyshire or Speke Hall in Liverpool for an idea of Elizabethan nobility life.

Careers links			Academic researcher Archivist Librarian			Museum curator Secondary School Teacher Broadcast Journalist
---------------	--	--	---	--	--	--